

Company Commitment

The House of Portraits was established in 1975 and has been photographing sports since 1978.

We are committed to creating the highest quality sport portraits in the area, and we strive to ensure that every detail of your portraits will be handled with care.

Your experience with us will always be a pleasant one. Customer service is where we excel and we strive to give you the best in the industry.

Sport portraits can be so easy! We take care of everything in a prompt and professional manner. The House of Portraits' goal has always been to become a household name by taking care of each client like they were our only one.

We know you will notice the difference the moment you entrust your photo memories to the best photographers in California.

Sincerely,

Greg Adams, President
THOP, Inc.
